REVIEW

Zema Estate Coonawarra Shiraz 2013

Lots of enjoyable drinking here again from Nick Zema. Generous with round edges. Dark fruit seems bottomless and is flanked by dark chocolate, leather and subtle clove. More time in the glass reveals char or perhaps smoke. Whatever it is, I like it.

Cruising to a long finish before a neat dash of spice chimes in. Did I say great drinking? Top value too.

Drink now to six years. 91/100. RRP $25.
