REVIEW

2008 Zema Estate Coonawarra Family Selection Shiraz

Deep red colour with the faintest tinges of purple. Herbal, subtle mint with red and dark fruit aromas, liberal oak and a lick of spice. The palate is rich and dense, with fleshy concentration and excellent flavor depth. It's not a very big wine, but it's concentrated and preserves a degree of elegance.

A$46 - Drink now to 2038 - Alc 14.5% - Screw cap - Tasted 26/11/13 - #2 of 19 2008 shiraz tasted from Coonawarra - A$91 price benchmark of 94pt 2008 shiraz.
