REVIEW

Zema Estate Coonawarra Family Selection Shiraz 2008

Rustic and oaky but finely balanced, this old-fashioned ‘Reserve’ style shiraz has a smoky, cedary and chocolatey bouquet whose aromas of small black and red berries, violets & plums are backed by dusty nuances of dried herbs, spicy and peppery notes and a hint of graphite. Assertively oaked, it’s long and polished, with a concentrated, fiery core of dark berry and plum fruit framed by firmish, fine tannins and finishing with length, balance and integrity.
