REVIEW

Zema Estate Coonawarra Cabernet Sauvignon 2010

An outstanding Coonawarra Cabernet from a very good producer in a standout vintage.

And the price is right, too.

Zema sometimes finds itself in the shadow of some of the bigger name Coonawarra producers, which means its wines often command less in the marketplace than they might deserve. Good news for consumers.

This is ripe with blackcurrant notes to the fore, but still very well structured with restrained oak and supple tannins.

Lovely stuff.
